INTRODUCTION

GoLegal is South Africa's leading legal information portal. The platform publishes the latest news, thought leadership articles and announcements by South Africa's top legal professionals. Attorney-founded and led, GoLegal is the first port-of-call for anyone seeking trusted legal information from a centralised hub.

The wide variety of legal topics and expert insights render the website and the affiliated weekly newsletter the ideal channels for suppliers to this industry to promote their know-how and advertise their brand.

Over and above premium exposure to this highly targeted audience, advertisers and law firms are able to receive direct leads and enquiries facilitated by the Press Office platform. Additionally, the GoLegal events calendar is an invaluable source of information regarding upcoming national legal events.

The GoLegal website receives approximately 150 000* page views per month from 100 000 users seeking high quality legal information. The weekly newsletter has over 15 000* subscribers interested in keeping up with the latest legal developments.

PRESS OFFICE

GoLegal’s Press Office provides a simple and effective content marketing solution for the legal industry and its affiliates. The Press Office offers organisations the opportunity to showcase their latest news, thought leadership and press releases. The company-branded page is supported by a fully-fledged newsroom, contact details, and a backlink to our client’s website that greatly aids search-engine-optimisation.

One of the primary benefits of the GoLegal Press Office is its lead generation capacity, connecting interested parties directly with the listed company representative or relevant author. GoLegal also brings experts to the fore, substantiating all articles with a full author profile and biography.

Press Office members receive exclusive benefits such as the publication of up to 4 articles per month across the GoLegal website*, newsletter, and social media pages, plus access to members-only specials and cross-promotion on applicable legal-topic pages.

*subject to editorial discretion and availability.

WEBSITE ADVERTISING

The GoLegal website publishes a wealth of legal news, events and announcements, drawing a loyal readership of lawyers, legal advisors, scholars, business executives and individuals interested in the law. Readers are kept up to date with daily legal news items and an archive of articles segmented by legal topic.

Advertisers have the choice of featuring on the home page and/or the balance of website pages including topic-specific pages, events, careers or student pages. Numerous banner sizes and placements are available in order to align with your optimal reach and spend.

As of July 2020, the average number of GoLegal page views per month was approximately 150 000, with users averaging 100 000. GoLegal offers tracking statistics on all website banners for the duration of the chosen campaign period and will share these with the client post campaign completion.

NEWSLETTER ADVERTISING

The GoLegal digital newsletter is sent out weekly and features links to the latest news, thought leadership articles, announcements, and events relevant to the South African legal industry.

The GoLegal newsletter has an active database of over 15 000 subscribers as of July 2020. With an average opening rate of 23% (industry standard is 16%), advertisers are exposed to a finely-honed audience of users seeking high-quality legal information.

Advertisers can also opt to design a dedicated mailer which is distributed to the GoLegal database of active subscribers on an ad hoc basis. This is the ideal opportunity to share tactical, brand-led communication with a highly targeted audience.

GoLegal offers tracking statistics on all digital banners and will share these with the client post campaign completion.
